

English 31
History-Geography Programme of Study

Seconde

In 2° the students of English 31 follow the programme of study determined by the French Ministry of Education. The essential difference is that our students are taught and assessed in English and are introduced to the type of OIB style questions that will be later examined as part of the OIB.

History Units	Geography Units
Athens 5th – 4th Centuries BC	Development and demographics
Rome 1st – 3rd Centuries BC	Environment and societies
The Medieval Mediterranean World	Migration and mobility
The Reformation	Southern Africa
European Expansion and the age of discovery
State and war in early modern England
The American Revolution
The French Revolution	